Any resulting termination of Membership in accordance with the following provisions shall not relieve the Member so terminated of the obligation to pay such annual assessments or dues. Any special assessment levied under the authority of Article X of these Bylaws shall carry its own due date, delinquent date and Membership termination declaration, which shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.

(1) A Member of the Corporation may be expelled or suspended, or the Membership in the Corporation may be terminated or suspended pursuant to the following fair and reasonable procedure, which shall be carried out in good faith:

(b) Said notice shall offer the Member an opportunity to be heard, orally or in writing, not less than five days before the effective date of the expulsion, suspension, or termination by the Board of Directors, which Board is authorized to decide that the proposed expulsion, termination, or suspension not take place; or that

(c) The proposed action to expel, suspend or terminate is fair and reasonable, taking into consideration all of the relevant facts and circumstances. In either event, a written decision of the Board of Directors shall be issued, setting forth the effective date of the decision.

(d) For purposes of this section, any written notice given by mail must be given by first-class or certified mail sent to the last address of the Member shown on the Corporation's records. Any proceeding seeking to challenge an expulsion, suspension, or termination, including a proceeding in which defective notice is alleged, must be commenced within one year after the effective date of the expulsion, suspension, or termination.

(e) Any Member expelled or suspended may be liable to the nonprofit Corporation for dues, assessments, or fees as a result of obligations incurred or commitments made prior to expulsion or suspension.

(2) Any vacancy occurring more than 90 days before the annual election shall be filled by an eligible authorized representative through appointment or appointments by the Board of Directors. Any vacancy in the office of secretary or treasurer occurring within 90 days of the annual election may be filled by the Board appointing a director to serve as acting secretary or acting treasurer until the annual election. The CCI Board of directors will confer with both affected districts prior to reassignment of a county.

Section 2. Grouping New Eligible Members In the event of the creation of a new county or new city and county, the Board of Directors shall determine the CCI district designation for any such new entity.

ARTICLE IX

Board of Directors

Section 1. Composition. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of the officers of the Corporation, the immediate past president of the Corporation and a representative from each CCI district. (The president-elect shall serve as his/her district representative.) If death, non-occupancy of county or city and county elected office or any other circumstance prevents such service on the Board, the last past president eligible to be on the Board of Directors shall serve in the place of the immediate past president. At the time of election of officers pursuant to Article VII, if the immediate past president will not be eligible to be on the Board of Directors in the following term, the immediate past president position shall be filled by the last past president eligible to be on the Board of Directors. The president of the Corporation shall serve as chair of the Board and the secretary of the Corporation shall serve the Board of Directors as secretary. No two directors on the Board may be from the same county.

Section 2. Manner and Time of Election of District Representatives to the Board of Directors. Each CCI district will elect a representative to the board of directors at their district meeting during the annual Membership meeting.

Section 3. Qualifications. The district representatives to the Board of Directors shall be persons holding the office of county commissioner in counties, or the elected equivalent in cities and counties, in the State of Colorado for a term of office which includes the year following the election provided for herein.

Section 4. Term. The term of each district representative shall commence at the close of the annual meeting and terminate at the close of the next succeeding annual meeting, unless sooner terminated by the Members at a special meeting called for that purpose or by the occurrence of any event triggering a vacancy as described by Section 5 below.

Section 5. Vacancy.

(1) A vacancy of a district representative position shall occur upon death, disqualification under the provisions of Section 3 of this Article, resignation, termination, or for other reasons. The filling of the vacancy in any office shall be subject to the provisions of Section 5 (2) of this Article.

(2) Any vacancy in the district representative to the Board occurring more than 90 days before the annual election shall be filled by an eligible authorized district representative through appointment or appointments by the Board of Directors.

(a) All counties in the appropriate district shall be given written notification of a specific vacancy by the executive director and requested to submit a written recommendation or recommendations to the Board of Directors of the name or names of one or more eligible county commissioners to fill such vacancy.

(b) The recommendation or recommendations made by the appropriate district shall be forwarded to the Board of Directors within 15 days of receipt of the notification provided in Paragraph (a). The affected district shall make their recommendation or recommendations on the basis of a majority vote of all counties contained within the affected constituency. Such determination may be made by polling or in an assembled meeting.

(c) The person appointed by the Board of Directors shall serve in office until the next annual election, at which time such person may succeed himself or herself in office if nominated and elected at the annual meeting in accordance with the procedure provided in these Bylaws in Article IX, Section 2.

Section 6. Vacancies - Catastrophes. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 10 of Article VII, or of Section 5 of this Article, whenever, at any time more than 45 days before the annual election, a number of vacancies are created on the Board of Directors through any one or more of the causes expressed in Subsection (1) of Section 5 of this Article, which occur simultaneously or so nearly simultaneously that the quorum prescribed by Section 3 or Article IX cannot be attained, even with all elected or appointed directors in attendance, the vacancies so created shall be filled in the following manner:

(1) The Executive Director, as defined in Section 7 of this Article, shall call the remaining or surviving directors into an emergency session, the quorum requirement prescribed by the Bylaws being dispensed with for the occasion.

(2) The directors so assembled shall select an acting chair, if neither the president nor the president-elect or officers remain or survive, and an acting secretary, if the secretary is no longer on the Board. They shall forthwith issue a call for the special Membership meeting to be held at a designated place and time, no later than 15 days following the call. The sole purpose of such Membership meeting shall be to nominate and elect persons to fill such vacancies.

(3) With the appropriate person presiding, as recognized under the provision of Subsection (2) of this Section, the Members assembled shall forthwith proceed to nominate and elect office by office, the requisite number of officers to fill such vacancies. Nominations shall be received from the floor for each office for which there is a vacancy. Nominations for offices can only be made by representatives from the district appropriate to the office to be filled (or from one of the counties with a population in excess of 50,000 as the case may be). Inasmuch as there is no automatic advancement under the circumstances invoking the exercise of this voting procedure, the appropriate constituency for nominating purposes is the constituency which has lost its representative on the Board of Directors and as to which loss the election for the particular office is being held. No nomination and election shall be held for the immediate past president's position on the Board, should there be such a vacancy, inasmuch as the provisions of Section 1 of Article IX control.

(4) Should the special election occur less than six months after the last annual election, the officers so elected shall continue in office until the next annual election. Should such election occur more than six months after the last annual election, the officers so elected, together with all other remaining or surviving directors, shall continue in office and as directors until the annual election in the year following the current year. In such latter event, the current year general election shall not be held.

Section 7. Executive Director. The Board of Directors shall appoint and employ an Executive Director of the Corporation. The Executive Director shall be responsible for the efficient administration of the affairs of the Corporation under the general direction of the Board of Directors. Except as otherwise specifically delegated to the secretary of the Corporation in these Bylaws, the Executive Director shall be responsible for preparing and maintaining any records and information required to be kept by the Corporation at the direction of the Board of Directors or pursuant to any law, and for authenticating the records of the Corporation.

Section 8. Meetings. The Board of Directors shall meet at the call of the president or at the call of any three members of the Board of Directors. The presence of sixty percent of the Directors shall constitute a quorum at any Board meeting.

Section 2. Duties. The Board of Directors shall manage the business and affairs of the Corporation. In the performance thereof, the Board shall possess all the powers granted to directors of nonprofit Corporations by Colorado law.

ARTICLE X Budget and Assessments

Section 1. Budget and Annual Assessments. The Board of Directors shall annually prepare a tentative budget sufficient to meet the anticipated financial needs of the Corporation and, based on such budget and the assessed valuation and other factors related to the respective counties, prepare a schedule of recommended annual assessments against the Members. This tentative budget and annual assessment schedule shall be delivered to each of the Members by October 1 using the prior year's assessed valuation and other criteria determined by the Board of Directors. The tentative budget and recommended annual assessment schedule shall be presented for adoption and approval by the Membership at the annual meeting of the Corporation. Action taken thereupon at the annual meeting shall be binding upon every Member of the Corporation. The assessments so adopted and approved shall be due and payable on January 1. Failure on the part of any Member to pay its annual assessment or dues by or before February 15 shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of Article III (5), above.

Section 2. Budget Amendments. The budget may be amended from time to time, if, in the discretion of the Board of Directors, the interests of the Corporation will be served thereby. Written notification of such action, together with copies of the amendments, shall be delivered to all the Members.

Section 3. Special Assessments. The Board of Directors may, from time to time, as it determines to be in the best interests of the Corporation, make special assessments against the Members for expressly designated purposes.

Section 4. Annual Financial Audit. The Board of Directors shall contract with an independent, certified public accountant for an annual financial audit of the Corporation. Unless otherwise provided in the Bylaws, the Committee makeup and the committee chair and vice chair shall be determined by the Board.

Section 4. Bylaws Committee. The Bylaws Committee shall be established each year at the summer conference to insure currency and, if necessary, shall review and recommend changes in the Bylaws to the Membership at any Membership meeting according to Article XIV. (3) The president shall chair meetings of the Legislative Committee, which shall be held at the call of the president or at the request of any five Members. If the president has not appointed his or her county's representative to the Legislative Committee, he or she shall not be eligible to vote in matters before the Legislative Committee. All Legislative Committee meetings are open to all county officials.
