BLM Has 3 Spots Open on Wild Horse/Burro Board

The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) has issued a call for public nominations to fill three positions on its national Wild Horse and Burro Advisory Board. To be considered for selection, nominations must be received via email by February 10, 2017, or postmarked by that date. Nominations are for a term of three years and are needed to represent the following categories of interest: public interest (equine behavior), wild horse and burro research, and natural resource management. The Advisory Board advises the BLM and the U.S. Forest Service on the protection and management of wild free-roaming horses and burros on public lands administered by those agencies. For those interested, please submit a nomination letter and full resume to Dorothea Boothe or, if you have questions, call her at 202.912.7654.
