Gov. Polis Takes Additional Action in Response to COVID-19

DENVER - Gov. Polis took additional action today in the face of the COVID-19 pandemic and signed a new Executive Order.

Executive Order D 2020 040 amends and extends Executive Order D 2020 010 which suspended statute to extend the income tax payment deadlines for all Colorado taxpayers to quickly provide relief from payment and penalties. Since signing Executive Order D 2020 010, the IRS has issued an extension for filers with income tax returns due between April 15, 2020 and July 15, 2020, and has moved those deadlines to July 15, 2020. The Executive Order signed today extends Executive Order D 2020 010 for another thirty (30) days and aligns with the IRS extension.
