

Southern Ute Indian Tribe

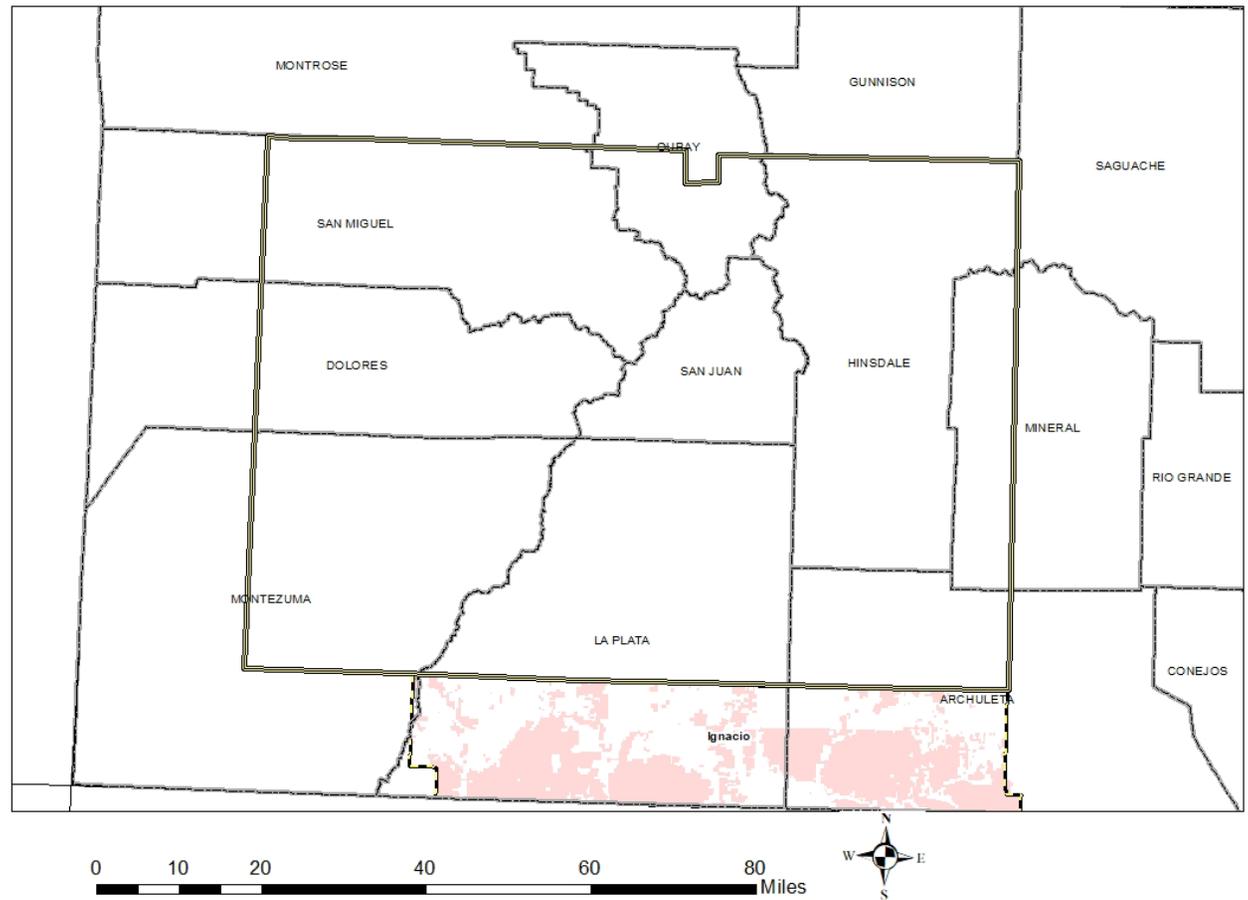

Presentation to Colorado Counties, Inc, December 3, 2024
Councilman Andrew Gallegos & David Smith, Legal Director

SB 24-212

- 29-20-405. Consultation with tribal government required - Brunot agreement of 1874. FOR RENEWABLE ENERGY PROJECTS FOR WHICH A LOCAL GOVERNMENT RECEIVES AN APPLICATION FOR LAND USE APPROVAL AFTER JUNE 30, 2024, A LOCAL GOVERNMENT SHALL NOT GRANT A DEVELOPMENT PERMIT FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF A FACILITY IN ANY AREA THAT IS INCLUDED WITHIN THE BRUNOT AREA UNLESS THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT FIRST CONSULTS WITH THE TRIBAL GOVERNMENTS OF THE UTE MOUNTAIN UTE TRIBE AND THE SOUTHERN UTE INDIAN TRIBE CONCERNING THE POTENTIAL IMPACTS TO HUNTING, FISHING, AND GATHERING RIGHTS RELATED TO THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE FACILITY.

Counties affected-
Montezuma, La Plata, Archuleta,
Mineral, Hinsdale, San Juan, Ouray, San
Miguel, and Dolores

Issues to discuss

History of the Tribe

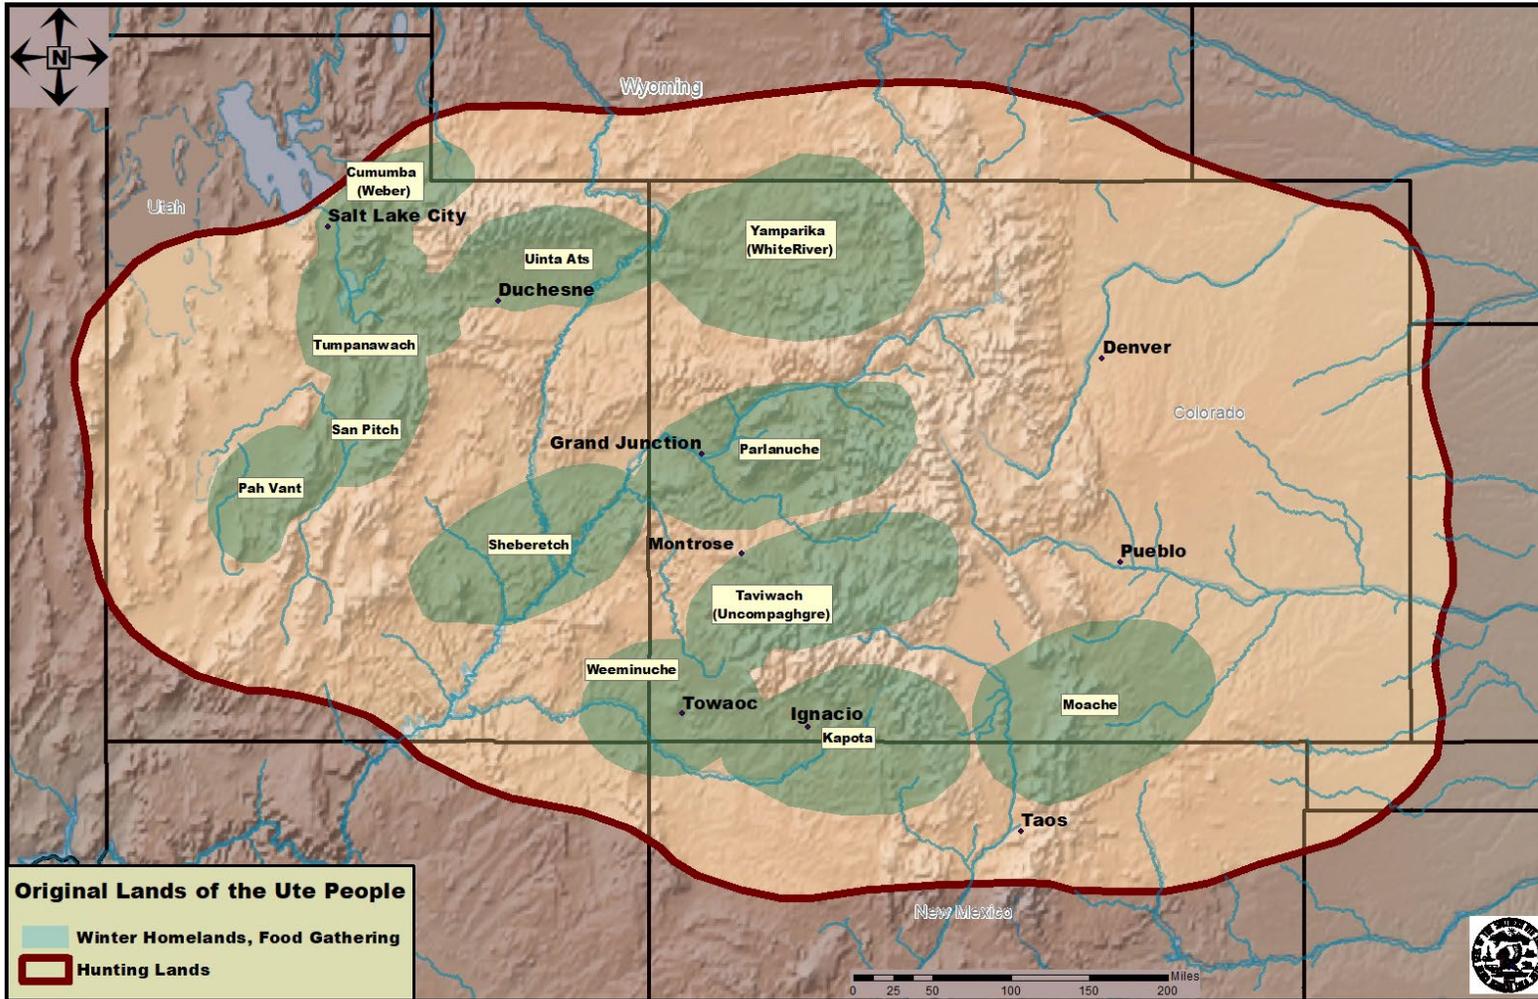

What is the Brunot Area?

Why is it important to the Tribe?

How do you consult with the Tribe?

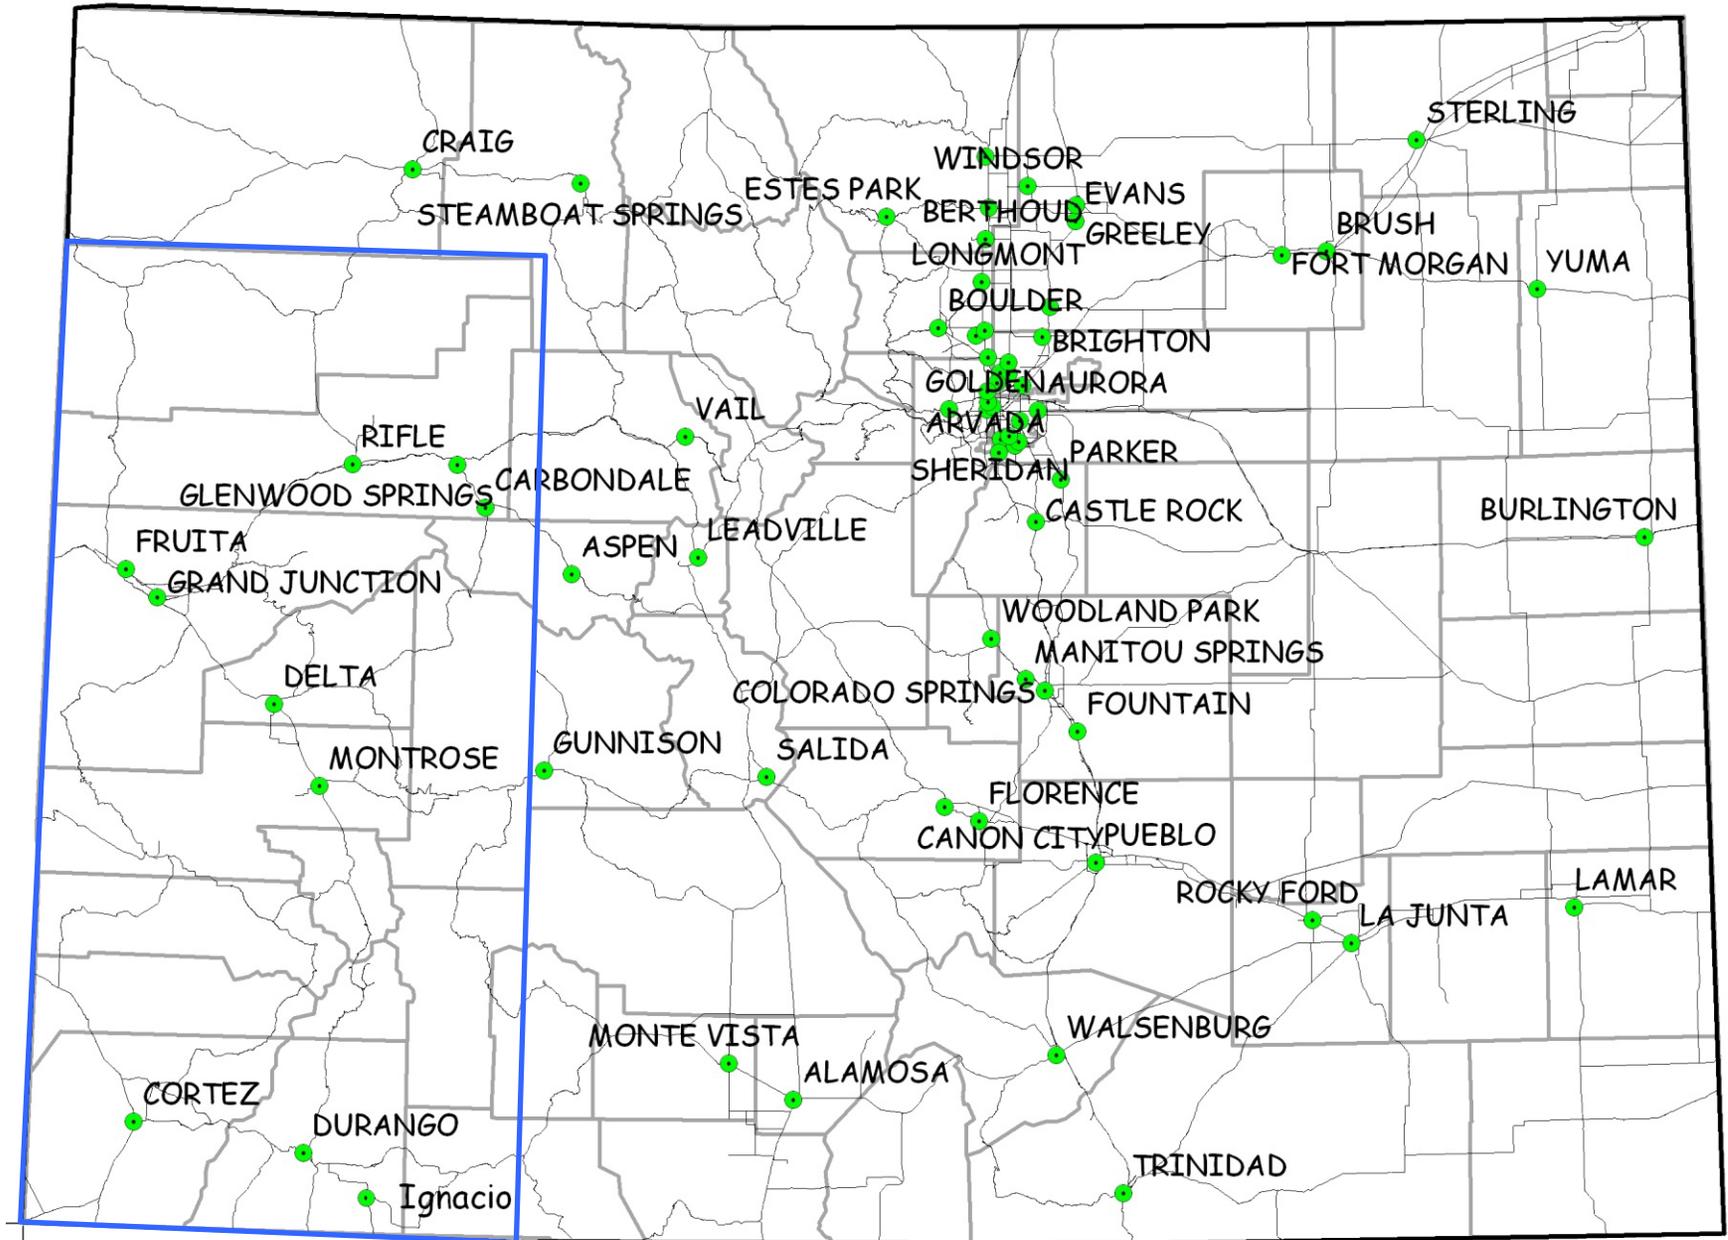

Original Territory

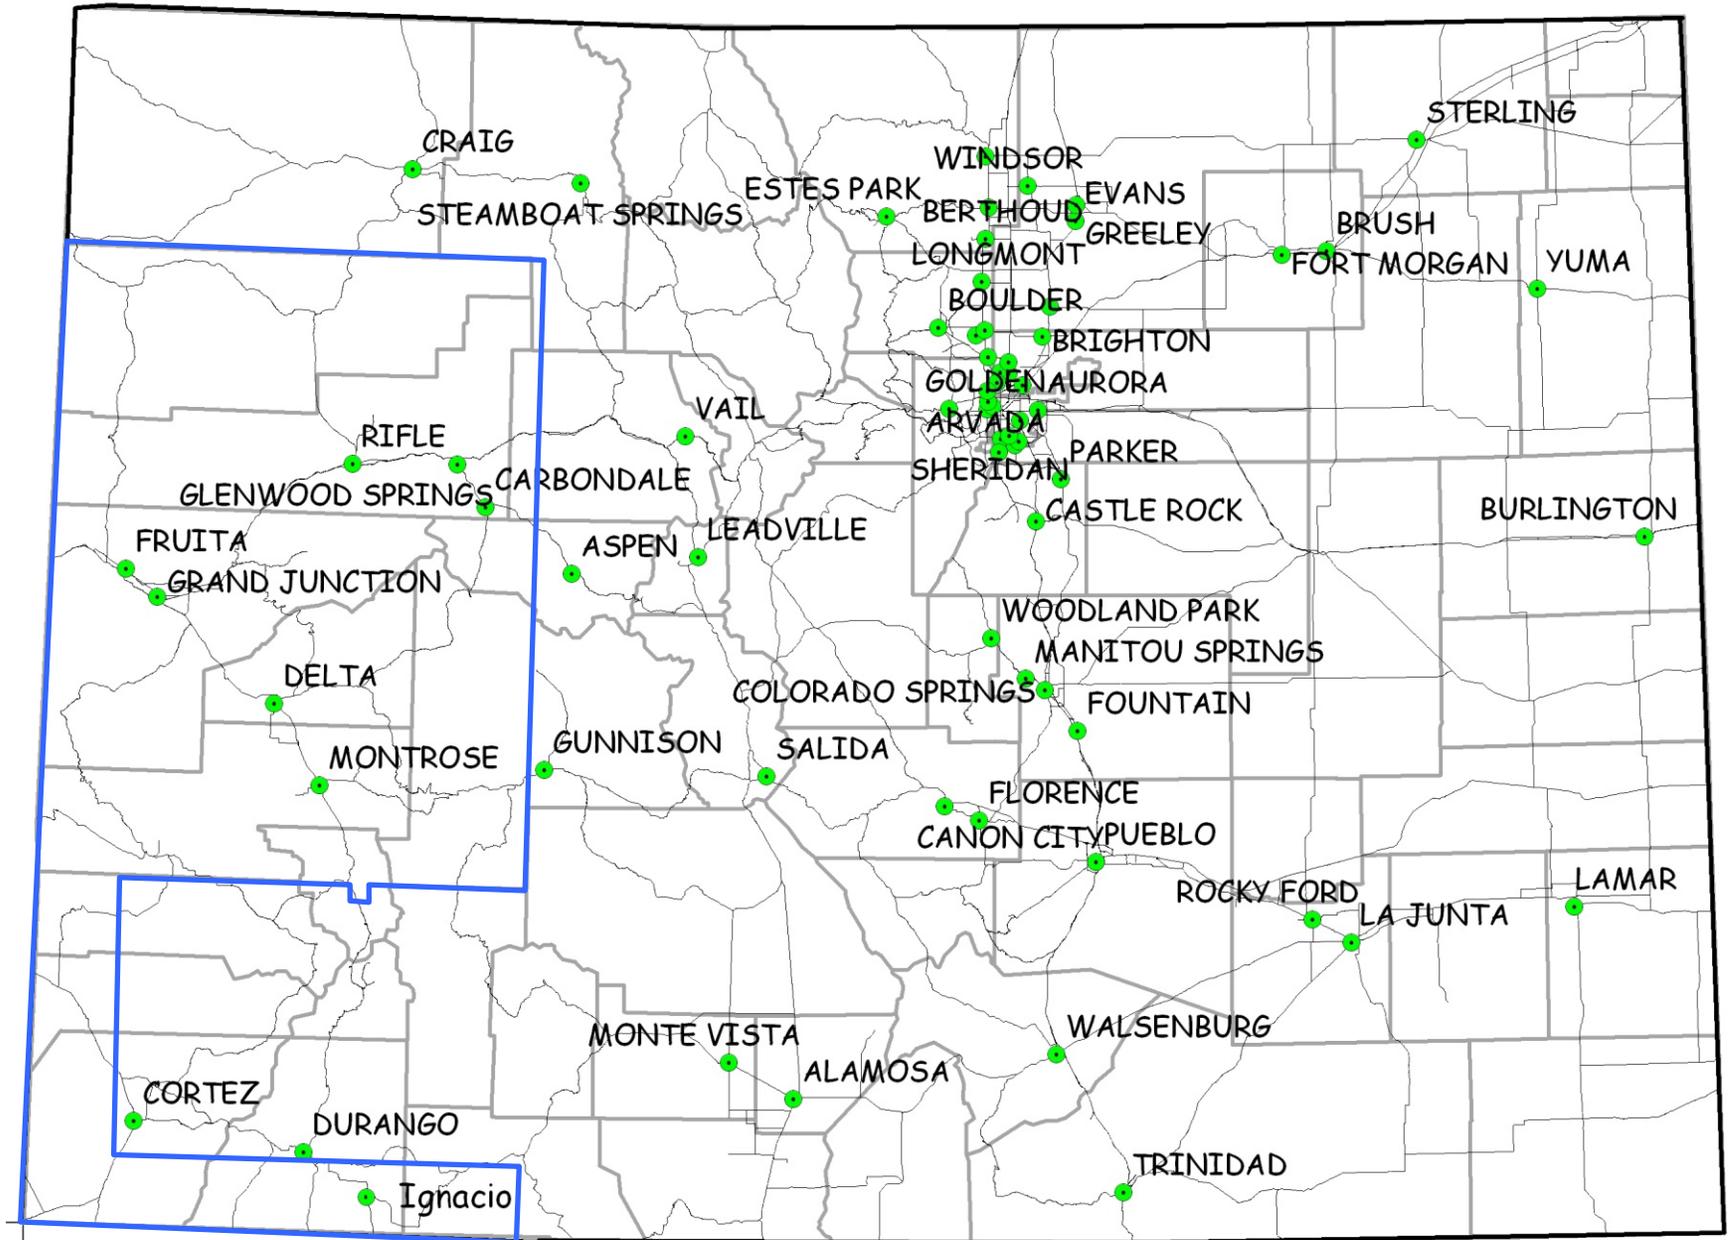

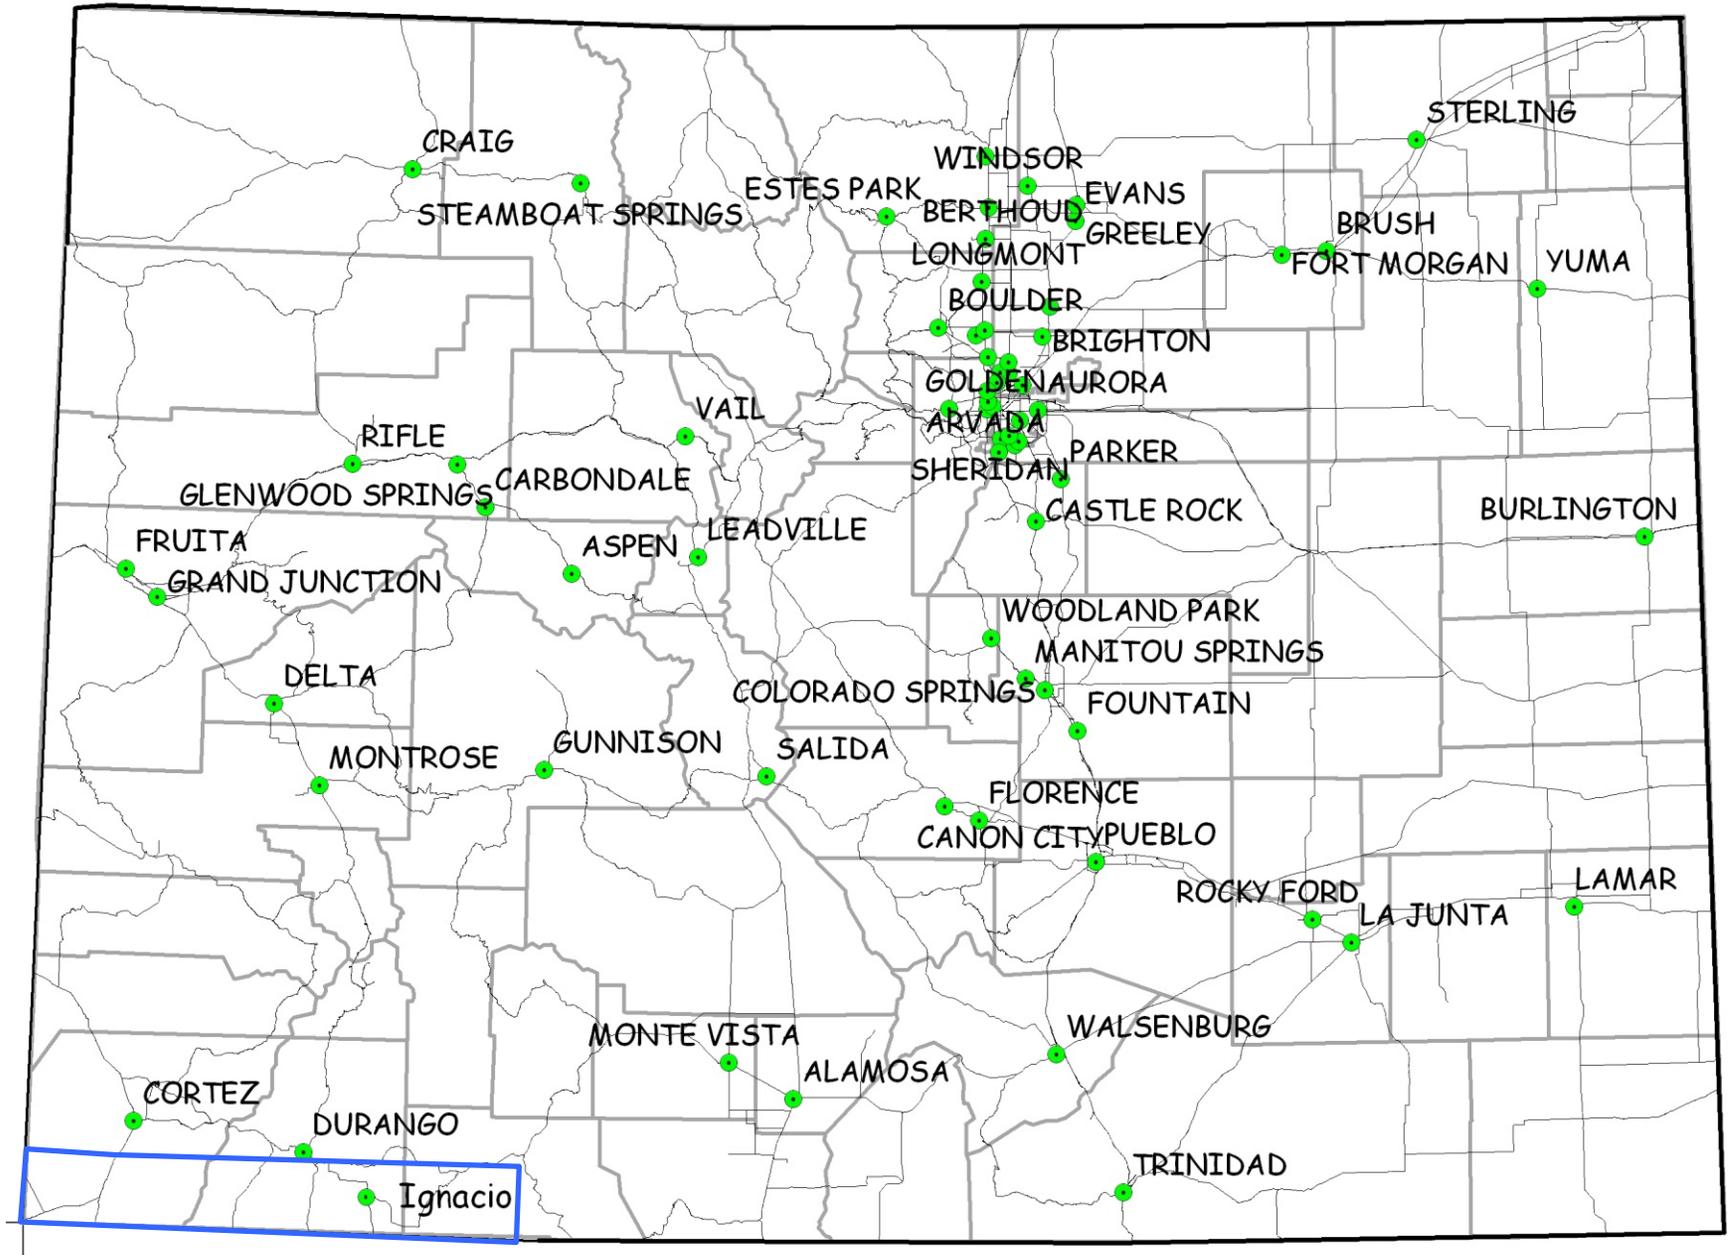

THE FIRST UTE RESERVATION - 1868

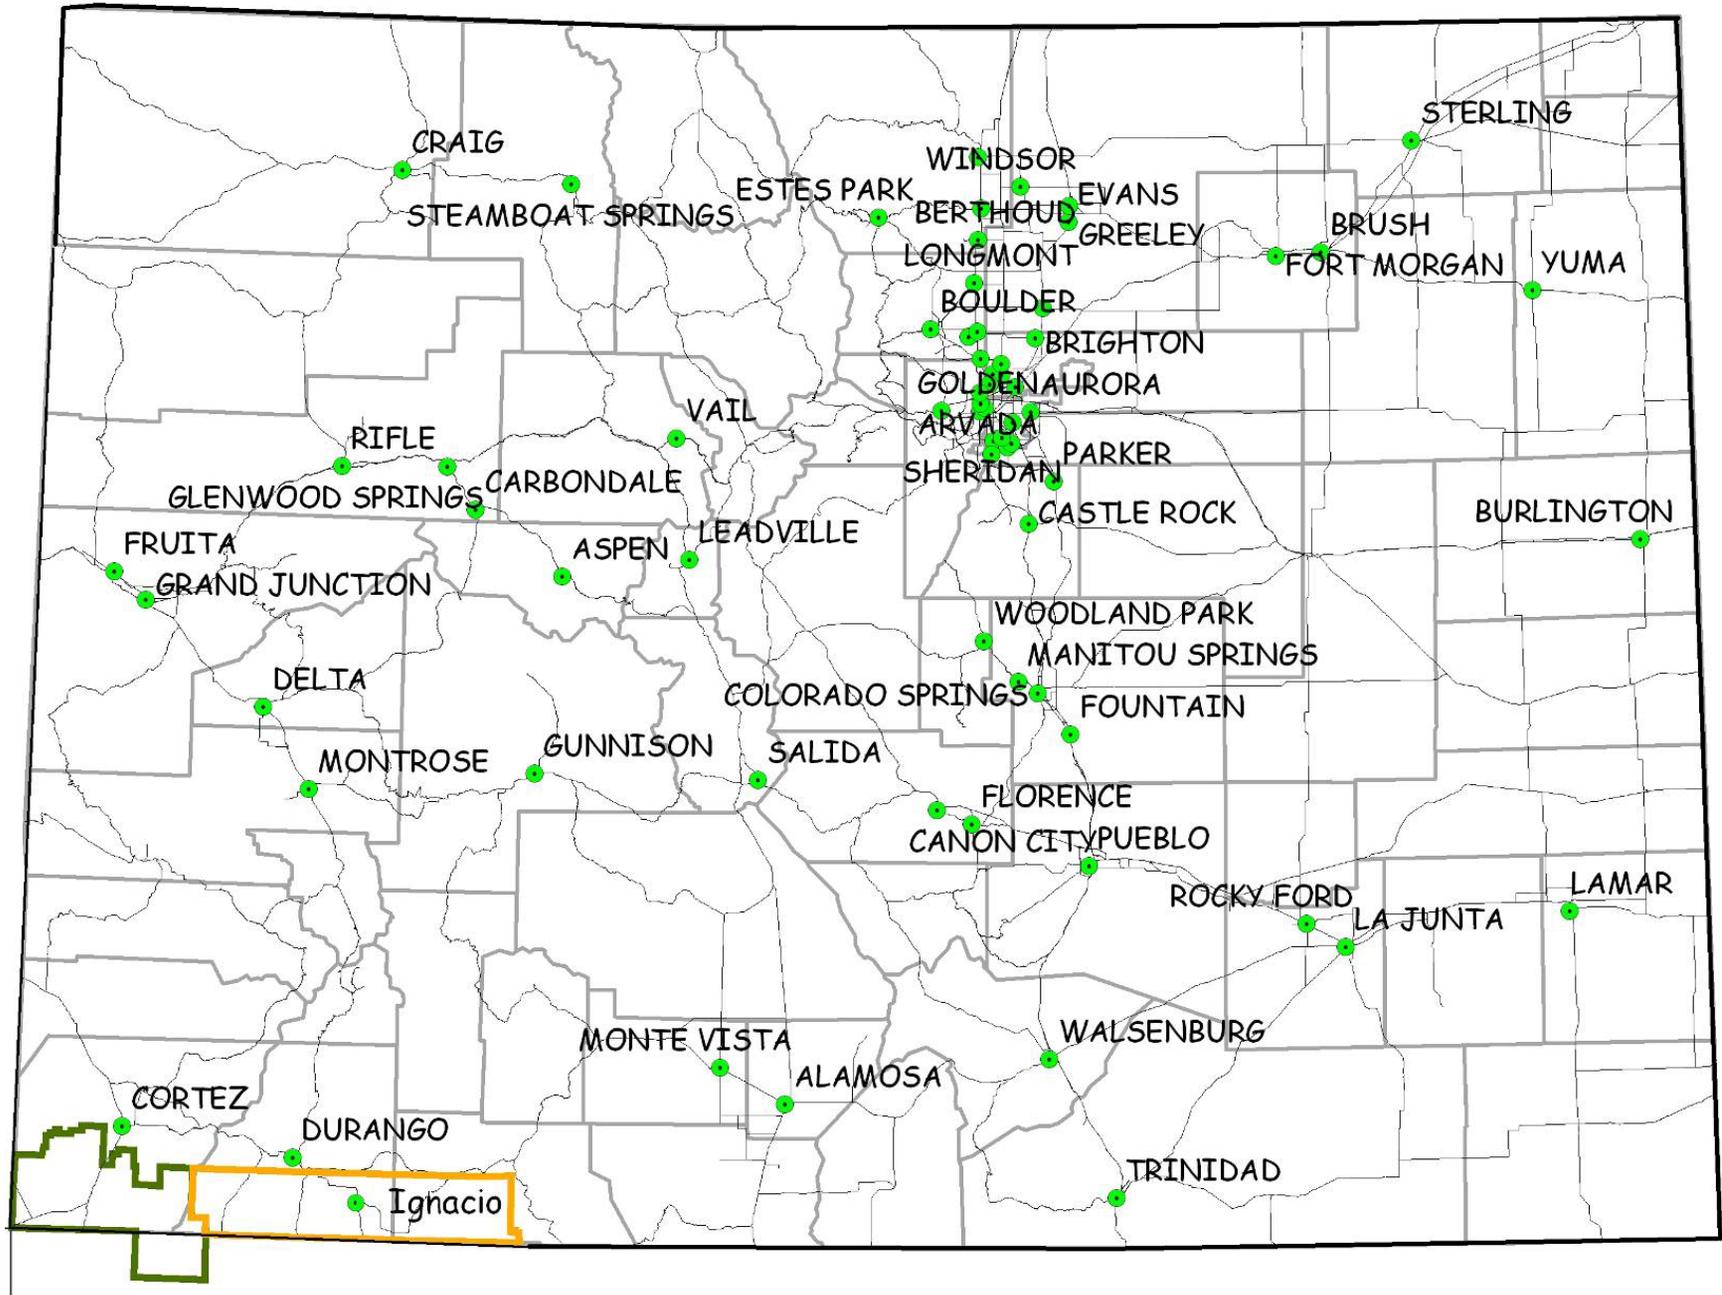

1874 RESERVATION, FOLLOWING THE BRUNOT CESSION

THE 1880 "UTE STRIP", FOLLOWING RELOCATION OF THE NORTHERN BANDS TO UTAH

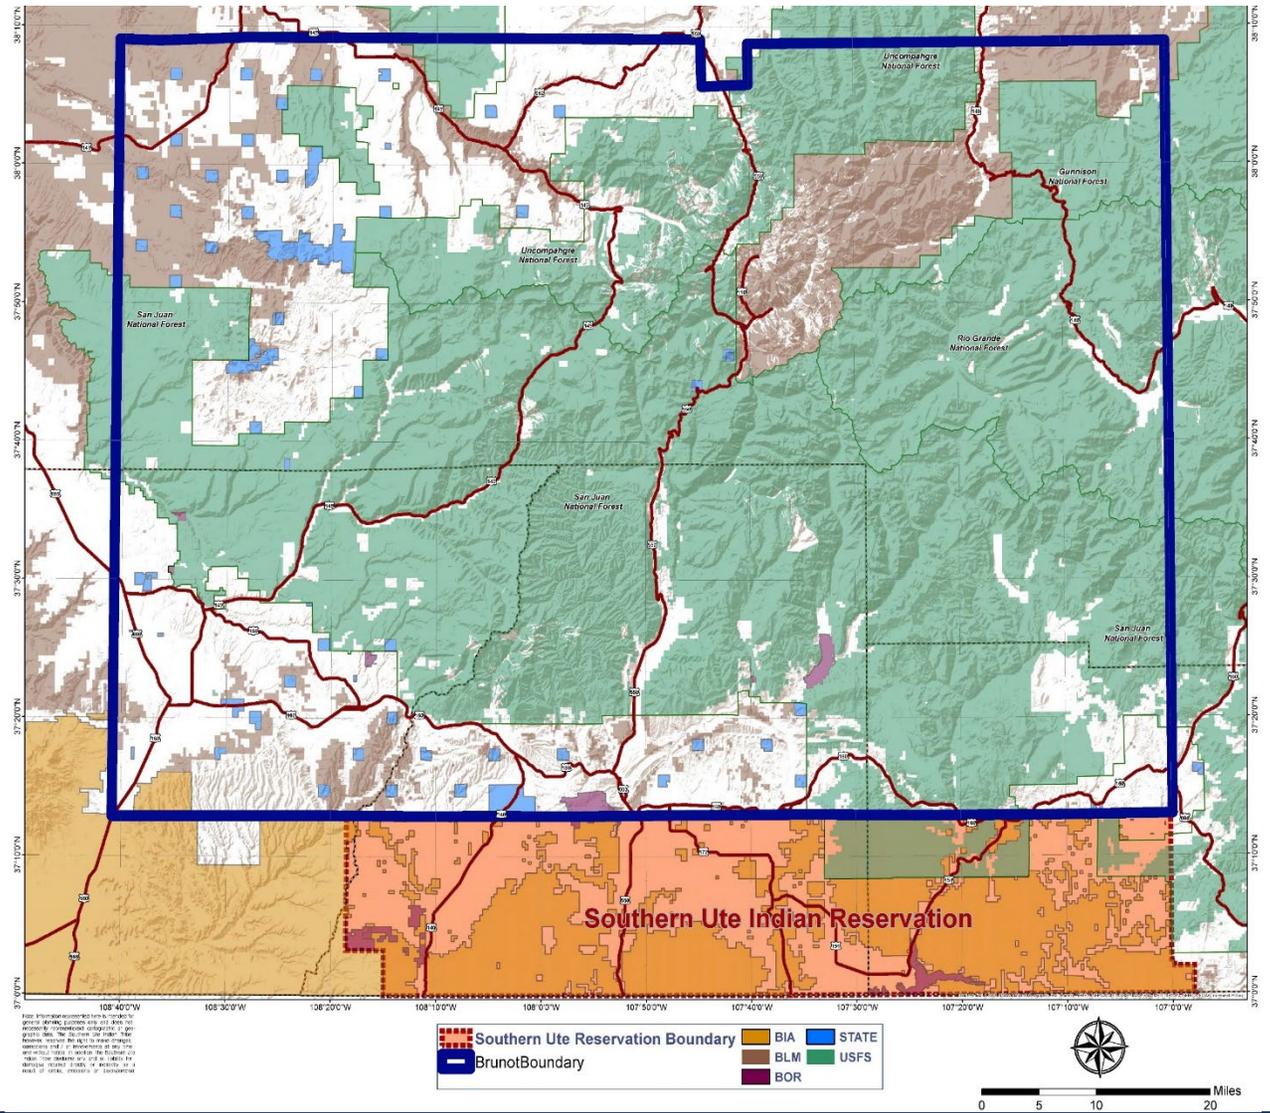

1895 THRU PRESENT-DAY UTE RESERVATIONS OF COLORADO

Brunot Treaty

Consultation

Sunshine Whyte
Tribal Council Affairs Manager
Southern Ute Indian Tribe

P.O. Box 737
Ignacio, CO 81137
970-563-2319 (Office)
970-553-1003 (Mobile)
swhyte@southernute-nsn.gov

David Smith
Legal Director
Southern Ute Indian Tribe
P.O. Box 737
Ignacio, CO 81137
970-563-2140 (Office)
970-799-0805 (Mobile)
dasmith@southernute-nsn.gov