EMPOWERING LAW ENFORCEMENT TO PROTECT COMMUNITIES: Today, President Donald J. Trump signed an Executive Order to empower state and local law enforcement to relentlessly pursue criminals and protect American communities. More specifically, the Order directs the Attorney General to:

- Create a mechanism to provide legal resources and indemnification for officers facing unjust legal expenses from official duties, including pro bono assistance.
- Maximize the use of Federal resources to improve training, increase officer pay and benefits, strengthen legal protections, seek tougher sentences for crimes against officers, enhance prison security and capacity, and improve crime-data uniformity.
- Review Federal consent decrees, out-of-court agreements, and post-judgment orders involving State or local law enforcement agencies and modify or rescind any that impede the performance of law enforcement functions.
- Increase the provision of surplus military assets to support local law enforcement and evaluate their use in crime prevention.
- Use recently established Homeland Security Task Forces (HSTFs) to advance Federal and local coordination.

KEEPING AMERICANS SAFE: President Trump's Executive Order empowers law enforcement to do their jobs, relentlessly pursue criminals, and protect innocent citizens.

 - In many local jurisdictions, officers are forced to comply with DEI policies or are wrongly accused of misconduct, which diverts their attention from fighting crime.

 - Some ignore shoplifting, vagrancy, and urban encampments, allowing disorder to spread unchecked in cities.

- Certain jurisdictions excuse violent riots when it's fashionable and demonize law enforcement officers who risk their lives to protect citizens.
- President Trump is committed to reversing these failed policies, empowering law enforcement, and ensuring every American can live in safety and security.
