Allocation Committee Meetings

The Lake House

10 am – Noon: Colorado Works Allocation Committee (WAC)

12 pm – 1pm: Lunch on your own

1 pm – 3 pm: Child Welfare Allocation Committee (CWAC)

3 pm – 5 pm: Joint Alignment Committee (JAC)

The Joint Alignment Committee (JAC) aka Super WAC and Super Fun! You should join us as we recap the work of this committee over the past year to collaborate across three major human services allocations; the Child Care Assistance Program (CCCAP) Allocation, Works (TANF) Allocation (WAC) and the Child Welfare Allocation (CWAC). JAC was tasked with developing and prioritizing policy and program recommendations to maximize all available resources despite a fiscal crisis. It is essential to recognize how interconnected these programs are – what affects one has ripple effects across all. Come hear what we have planned for 2026!

10:30 am – Noon

ACCA Pre-Conference Session

Open Meetings, Open Records and Public Comment

Weathering the Financial Storm – Budgeting for a Recession

Meadowbrook

Open Meetings/Records

Explore both the practical and legal considerations involved in complying with the Colorado Open Meetings Law and the Colorado Open Records Act. During this session, we will also cover the rules surrounding public comment—when it is required, how it can be structured, and the legal boundaries for limiting it.

Learn how to effectively conduct local government business while honoring transparency and encouraging meaningful public participation in the decision-making process.

Weathering the Financial Storm

Join public sector strategists and peer leaders for a deep dive into practical budgeting approaches that promote resilience, sustainability, and service continuity. Walk away with actionable tools and insights to strengthen your county's financial position—now and in the future.

Noon – 6 pm

Registration Open

1:30 pm – 3 pm

CCI Concurrent Session

The Condition of the Condition: The Intersection of Housing and Land Use

Westminster 3

In 2024, the General Assembly sought to sustainably increase housing supply through state support for strategic growth, water supply, and housing needs assessments, in its passage of SB24-174 (Sustainable Affordable Housing Assistance).

As the resources and requirements of SB24-174 come to fruition, this session will familiarize participants with these elements but also provide insight into how one county has incorporated strategic growth principles into their comprehensive plan and how these requirements may be realized by planning department staff.

It's Back! Director Connector: Small Table Conversations with State Executive Directors

Cotton Creek

Back by popular demand — with even more time to talk and connect. Building on the success of the Summer Conference format, this session gives county leaders the chance to engage directly with Executive Directors from CDHS, CDEC, HCPD, and BHA in an extended, small-table setting. We've added time for deeper dialogue, improved spacing for better acoustics, and kept the focus on what matters most: meaningful, two-way conversation. This session offers a unique opportunity to ask questions, share local perspectives, and strengthen relationships with state leadership. Come ready for open exchange, honest discussion, and collaboration that moves our shared work forward.

CHSDA Issue Session | Leadership: It's How We Show Up That Matters
Cotton Creek

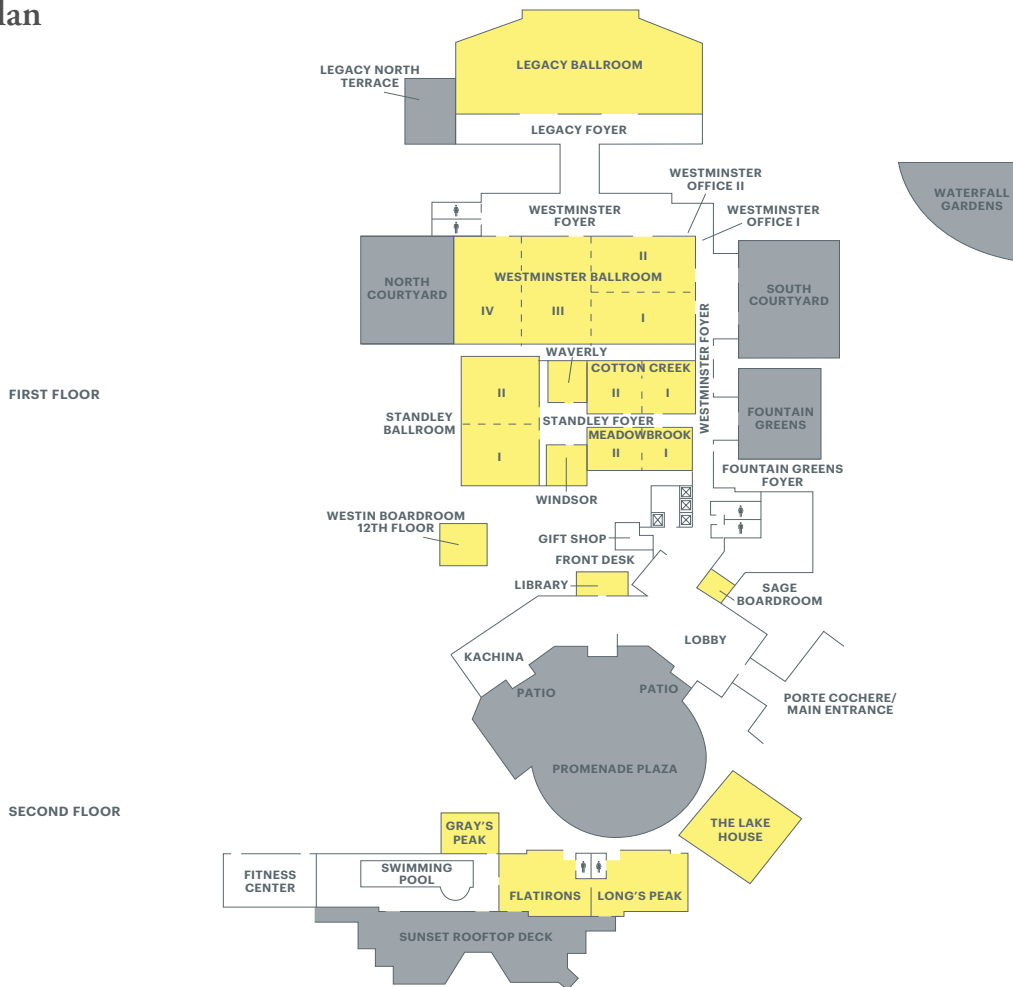

Colorado's county human services directors are leading in a time of sustained pressure, rapid change, and growing community need. The work is relational, imperfect, and deeply human—filled with missteps, growth, joy, and hard-won successes. In this session, speaker Debi Grebenik will explore how shame and fear show up in leadership—and how to dismantle their influence so we can lead with clarity, courage, and compassion. Participants will reflect on how to build personal fortitude, cultivate supportive networks, and strengthen the mindsets and practices that sustain effective leadership.

Energy Codes, Electric Vehicle, & Wildfire Resiliency – Oh, My! The landscape of building code updates for counties.
Westminster 2

In recent years, the General Assembly has passed several bills that affect local building codes. This session will support local implementation and explain the sometimes complex timelines and triggers embedded in these new laws, such as those related to energy efficiency, electric vehicle charger readiness, and Wildland-Urban Interface (WUI) codes.

Speaker/Panelists:

CCI Concurrent Issue Session | Modernizing Jails: Balancing Standards, Capacity, and Cost

Westminster 3

Colorado's counties are taking a fresh look at their jail facilities as they work to align existing space and operations with the updated recommendations of the Colorado Jail Standards Commission. This panel highlights how local leaders are approaching modernization by balancing standards, capacity, and cost to support safe and effective jail operations.

Panelists:

Kristin Sullivan, Deputy County Manager, Adams County

Amy White-Tanabe, Southeast Regional Manager, Colorado Department of Local Affairs

Krista Brown, Jail Standards Advisory Committee Program Manager, County Sheriffs of Colorado

Moderator: Warren Brown, Commissioner, Archuleta County

10:15 am – 11:30 am

CHSDA Issue Session | Building Better Together: County Priorities Amid Budget, Policy, and System Change

Cotton Creek

We invite Commissioners to join this important briefing, as we face challenging situations for human services in Colorado. Counties are navigating significant federal changes, rising program demands, and state budget challenges that will require increased administrative workload with fewer resources. This session will update Commissioners on human services decision items in the Governor's SFY26-27 budget, additional county-state discussions about future state of the delivery system, and the next steps that counties are considering to identify efficiencies.

Facilitator: Jamie Ulrich, Director, Weld County Human Services

Speakers:

Anne Gallegos, Director, Delta County Human Services

Megan Burch, Director, Eagle County Human Services

Heather O'Hayre, Director, Larimer County Human Services

Dan Makelky, Director, Arapahoe County Human Services

10:15 am – 11:30 am

CARSE Issue Session

Road Rights of Way – Irrigation & Railroads

Meadowbrook

Panel discussion with two county attorneys regarding rights of way issues/conflicts with irrigation and railroads. Regulations and directions based on state statutes, case law and opinions.

Speakers:

Frank Haug, Assistant County Attorney, Larimer County

Matthew Hoyt, County Attorney, Gunnison County
